

Denys Kudin has over 16 years' experience in the development of strategic and operational management systems for enterprises, implementation of the best corporate governance practices in manufacturing enterprises and the fuel and energy sector, retail trade, light industry and project management.

He supervised teams of more than 10,000 employees and an extensive regional network of branches throughout Ukraine. He is experienced in managing enterprises with a turnover of more than 1,500,000,000 US dollars per year, implementation of large-scale projects to build vertically integrated management, transformation of organizational structures, building information management systems.

2002 - 2004 Coordinator of national and international projects, the UN Office in Ukraine, 2004 - 2012 Chairman of the Board, DIPLOMAT SERVICE, 2013 - 2018 Retail Sales Director, WOG filling stations, 2018 - 2020 Advisor on attracting foreign investments for a number of Ukrainian companies. He is guest lecturer at the Kyiv-Mohyla Business School. He is a member of the Professional Government Association Ukraine.

He holds an MBA from London Business School (UK) and an MBA from Columbia University in New York (USA). By first education, he is an international lawyer (Institute of International Relations of Kyiv National Taras Shevchenko University).