

Ms. Byelova has 15 years of advanced experience in management of change, development and improvement the efficiency of companies. She is an EU-accredited HRM consultant in the EU4PAR International Project of Public Administration Reform. Being a Director of the Department on organization development, efficiency management and HR at PJSC “Ukrposhta”, she conducted an effective organization transformation of the company, centralization of the branch network’s management, implemented a system of HR efficiency. She provided organization transformation of JSC “Delta Bank” from a niche consumer landing bank to a universal bank, which was in the top banks in Ukraine. She worked at DTEK, Raiffeisen Bank Aval, where she was responsible for corporate culture transformation, staff education and development, as well as launched DTEK Academy. Ms. Byelova has two degrees: translation and finance, as well as master-trainer licensed in Austria.