

Kostiantyn Koshelenko has more than 15 years of successful managerial experience in the banking and financial industry, specifically including sales, business development and M&A. Previously, he held several senior positions including Director of the Department at JSC “Delta Bank”, Chairman of the Board at Trust Bank, Business Director for “EasyPay” terminals settlement and Deputy Chairman of the Board at Forvard Bank. Also, Mr. Koshelenko participated in the creation of regional networks and digitalization of banks, as well as realized projects as Bank.ID, Apple Pay and development of mobile apps. He has project management experience, including Agile software development. For his professional activities, the establishment of efficiency work of regional branches, customer service and the launch of innovative products, he had received rewards. He has three major degrees: MA in Finance and IT systems as well as Management. Moreover, in 2016 he got MBA degree from Kyiv-Mohyla Business School.