

Mr. Antonienko has 16 years of managerial experience, including project leadership for raising capital, buying and selling banks, restructuring, etc. He is a co-legislator of many laws and draft bill on lease and management of state and communal property, corporate agreements, protection of investors rights; corporate governance, etc. He participated in the working groups in order to initiate and implement a number of reforms, namely: launch of the ProZorro.Sale system for privatization of communal property; VlasCom on-line platform for lease administration in Kyiv City; form supervisory board for communal enterprises, etc. Moreover, he was the Director of a Department at the National Bank of Ukraine. Since 2015. Mr. Antonienko is a people's deputy of the Kyiv City Council, Head of the Standing Property Commission. In different periods he was Board Member, Chair of the Audit Commission of the Ukrainian Bar Association; Head of the Corporate Law and Stock Market Committee within Ukrainian Bar Association; Corporate Law Reform Advisor of Minister of Economic Development and Trade of Ukraine. Leonid Antonienko has two law degrees: Master of European Law (Great Britain), Specialist in Law (Ukraine). In addition to professional activities, he is actively involved in civic initiatives.