

SENNYCHENKO

Dmytro Volodymyrovych

Born in the city of Kyiv on December 8, 1973, to a family consisting of a teacher and an architect.

1997 - graduated from the Institute of International Relations, Taras Shevchenko National University of Kyiv.

2001 - received an MBA degree from the International Institute of Management.

1997 - economist at the National Bank of Ukraine, where he managed projects of the World Bank Group in the financial sector. Simultaneously became a member of the Interagency Working Group on Ukraine's accession to the GATT / WTO.

2000 - 2001 – international secretary in the Office of the Prime Minister of Ukraine. Key responsibilities included establishment and maintenance of international relations and cooperation with international financial institutions and investors, at the same time occupying the position of Deputy Director from Ukraine at the Black Sea Trade and Development Bank (BSTDB).

2004 - 2006 – Head of the German Corporation for International Cooperation (GIZ), at that time known as GTZ – German Technical Cooperation Agency.

2006 - 2010 – CEO of the British-based development company Parkridge Holdings in Ukraine specializing in real estate and infrastructure investments. In 2007-2008 Parkridge Holdings Ltd. was recognized as the best developer in Central and Eastern Europe by Europa Property and Financial Times.

2013 - 2016 – Director of Jones Lang LaSalle in Ukraine, CIS Business Development Director. In 2013, under his leadership, the company was recognized by The Ukrainian Property Awards as the best investment and consulting company in Ukraine.

2016 - 2018 – Director of Real Estate and Infrastructure Management at Ukrposhta, where the corporatization and reform of a state-owned enterprise was implemented by him. Under his leadership, Ukrposhta was the first state-owned enterprise to launch a procedure for the leasing of real estate by means of the trading e-system ProZorro.Sale.

Besides that served as an independent member of the Supervisory Boards of Enterprises with foreign Investment in Ukraine, including companies whose authorized capital was invested by EBRD; an independent member of the Prozorro

Supervisory Board; held the positions of Vice President of the Committee on Infrastructure and Real Estate of the American Chamber of Commerce (ACC); a member of the Board of the Ukrainian Real Estate Club; a member of the Entrepreneurs Council of the Cabinet of Ministers of Ukraine.

Since September 24, 2019, he has been carrying out the duties of Head of the State Property Fund of Ukraine.