

Liudmyla Darahan has been appointed to the position of Chief of Staff of the State Property Fund of Ukraine from October 10, 2022.

Professional activity:

She began her career in the Legal department of the political party apparatus, worked as an assistant to the Minister of Justice of Ukraine, head of the office of the People's Deputy of Ukraine.

From 2019 to 2022, she worked as the State Secretary of the Ministry of Veterans Affairs of Ukraine, where she built an effective organizational system for the functioning of the ministry's staff and established a system for organizing training, retraining and advanced training of civil servants.

On the part of public control, Liudmyla Darahan was noted for the excellent performance of duties regarding the control of executive discipline in the apparatus.

She coordinated and legally supported the Ukraine-Solidarity-NATO project.

Education:

In 2003, Liudmyla Darahan graduated from the Faculty of Law of Taras Shevchenko Kyiv National University for the Jurisprudence specialty.

- completed the Public Administration course for senior management personnel on the basis of the Nanyang Center for Public Administration;
- Internship in the European Parliament;
- Internship under the program of the US Congress.