

Dmytro Sennychenko has 20 years of leadership experience in systemic international business, NGO and public administration.

His career began as an economist at the National Bank of Ukraine, than he worked at the Service of the Prime Minister of Ukraine and as an advisor to the Chairman of the Verkhovna Rada of Ukraine Subcommittee on Banking and Finance.

Then Mr. Sennychenko headed the German Technical Assistance Office in Ukraine - Deutsche Gesellschaft fur Internationale Zusammenarbeit (GIZ) GmbH, where he implemented the sectoral reform projects in coordination with IFC, CIDA, FDFID, USAID and UNDP.

Besides, he led the international investment, development and consulting companies specializing in real estate and infrastructure investment.

As Director of Real Estate and Infrastructure Management, he provided corporatization and reform of Ukrposhta PJSC.

He is Independent Member of the Supervisory Board of the SE Prozorro.Sale.

As well he held positions as Vice President of the Infrastructure and Real Estate Committee at the American Chamber of Commerce (ACC), corporate executive of Ukrainian Real Estate Club (URE Club), member of the Entrepreneurs Council at the CMU.

Mr. Sennychenko got MBA degree from International Management Institute.