

Since September 7, 2022, Rustem Umerov is the Chairman of the State Property Fund of Ukraine. From August 29, 2019 until his appointment to the post, he was a People's Deputy of Ukraine.

Career:

He began his career in 2004 at a telecommunications company, holding various management positions.

In 2013, he founded the investment company ASTEM and the charity fund ASTEM Foundation:

- ASTEM manages investments in the fields of communications, information technology and infrastructure.

- ASTEM Foundation is one of the donors of the Ukrainian Emerging Leaders program at Stanford University, which aims to train Ukrainian politicians, lawyers, social entrepreneurs, businessmen, and community leaders.

In 2019, he was elected a People's Deputy of Ukraine. While working in the Verkhovna Rada, he headed the Special Temporary Commission for Monitoring the Receipt and Use of International Material and Technical Aid. He was a co-chairman of the Crimea Platform parliamentary association, a member of the Ukrainian negotiating group with the Russian Federation.

Education:

Graduate of the Crimean Boarding School for Gifted Children of the Ministry of Education and Science of the Autonomous Republic of Crimea, Ukraine.

He is a Fellow of the Future Leaders Exchange Program (FLEX) of the USA; the Canada-Ukraine Parliamentary Program; the American-Ukrainian Leadership Program; the European Youth Parliament; the AEGEE European Students' Forum; the Forum of the Future Summit and the European Law Students' Association.

He has a Bachelor's degree in Economics and a Master's degree in Finance from the National Academy of Management.

Date and place of birth: Rustem Umerov was born on April 19, 1982 in Samarkand of the Uzbek SSR. He comes from Alushta (The Autonomous Republic of Crimea, Ukraine).